PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Finance Act [Chapter 23:04].

2 Interpretation

(1) In this Act—

- (a) any reference to a Chapter shall be construed as a reference to a Chapter of this Act;
- (b) any reference to a Schedule shall be construed as a reference to a Schedule to the Chapter in which the reference appears.

(2) Subsection (4) of section 10 of the Interpretation Act [Chapter 1:01] shall apply in construing this Act as if the definition of “division” in that subsection included a Chapter of this Act.

3 Regulations

The Minister responsible for finance may make such regulations as he may consider necessary or expedient for the administration of this Act and the better carrying out of its purposes.

CHAPTER I

INCOME TAX AND OTHER TAXES LEVIED IN TERMS OF THE INCOME TAX ACT

PART I

PRELIMINARY

4 Interpretation in Chapter I

(1) In this Chapter—

- “blind person” means a person whose eyesight is so defective during more than half of the period of assessment that he is unable to perform any work for which eyesight is essential;
- “family taxpayer”

[Definition repealed by s 2 of Act 13 of 1996]

“period of assessment” means—

- (a) the year of assessment; or
- (b) the period within or deemed by the Taxes Act to be within the year of assessment in respect of which an assessment is made in terms of the Taxes Act;

as the case may be;

“specified amount” means the appropriate amount specified in Part I of the Schedule in respect of the year of assessment concerned;

“specified percentage” means the appropriate percentage specified in Part II of the Schedule in respect of the year of assessment concerned;

“Taxes Act” means the Income Tax Act [Chapter 23:06];

“taxpayer” means any person in respect of whom an assessment is made in terms of the Taxes Act.

(2) For the purposes of this Chapter—

- (a) an expression to which a meaning is assigned in subsection (1) of section 2 or in subsection (1) of section 8 of the Taxes Act shall have the same meaning in this Chapter, unless the expression is otherwise defined in this Chapter;
- (b) subsections (2) and (3) of section 2 and section 4 of the Taxes Act shall be deemed to be contained in this Chapter.

PART II

CREDITS TO BE DEDUCTED FROM INCOME TAX

5 Credits to which section 7 of Taxes Act relates

(1) Subject to this Part and to section 50 of the Taxes Act, the credits to be deducted from the income tax with which a person is chargeable in pursuance of section 7 of that Act shall—

- (a) if the period of assessment is twelve months, be the credits for which provision is made in this Part;
- (b) if the period of assessment is less than twelve months, be—
 - (i) the credit for which provision is made in section ten, reduced proportionately; and
 - (ii) the credits for which provision is made in sections eleven, twelve and thirteen.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the total amount of credits to be deducted in terms of—

[Paragraph repealed by s 3(b) of Act 13 of 1996]

(b)

[Subparagraph repealed by s. 2(b)(ii) of Act 17 of 1997]

[Subparagraph repealed by s. 2(b)(ii) of Act 17 of 1997]

(d) any provision of this Part from the income tax with which any person is chargeable in any year of assessment shall not exceed the total income tax with which that person is chargeable in respect of that year of assessment.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, no credit shall be deducted from the income tax with which a company or trust is chargeable in any year of assessment.

[Section repealed by Act 13 of 1996]

[Section repealed by Act 17 of 1995]

[Section repealed by Act 17 of 1995]

[Section repealed by Act 17 of 1995]

10 Taxpayers over 59 years of age

A credit of the specified amount shall be deducted from the income tax with which a taxpayer is chargeable, where he had attained the age of fifty-nine years prior to the commencement of the year of assessment.

Provided that, if the period of assessment is less than twelve months, the amount referred to in this paragraph shall be reduced proportionately.

[Paragraph (b) repealed by Act 29 of 1998]

11 Blind persons

A credit of the specified amount shall be deducted from the income tax with which a taxpayer who is a blind person is chargeable:

Provided that any portion of such credit which is not applied in reduction of the income tax with which a blind person who is married is chargeable shall be allowed as a deduction from the income tax with which his or her spouse is chargeable.

12 Invalid appliances and medical expenses

(1) In this section—

“invalid appliance or fitting” includes—

- (a) a wheelchair or any mechanically propelled vehicle which is specially designed and constructed for the carriage of one person, being a person suffering from a physical defect or disability; or
- (b) any artificial limb, leg calipers or crutch; or
- (c) any special fitting for the modification or adaptation of a motor vehicle, bed, bathroom or toilet to enable its use by a person suffering from a physical defect or disability; or
- (d) spectacles or contact lenses;

“medical expenses” means—

- (a) the sum of any payments made for the purchase, hire, repair, modification or maintenance of any invalid appliance or fitting which the Commissioner is satisfied is necessary for use by a taxpayer or his spouse or any child or the taxpayer as a consequence of any mental or physical defect or disability; and
- (b) the sum of any payments made for—
 - (i) services rendered to a taxpayer, his spouse and minor children or one or more of them by a medical or dental practitioner; and
 - (ii) drugs and medicines supplied to a taxpayer, his spouse and minor children or one or more of them on the prescription of a medical or dental practitioner; and
 - (iii) the accommodation, maintenance, nursing and treatment, including blood transfusions and X-ray and laboratory examinations, tests and the like, of a taxpayer, his spouse and minor children or one or more of them in or at a hospital, maternity-home, nursing-home, sanatorium, surgery, clinic or similar institution; and
 - (iv) the conveyance by ambulance, including an air ambulance, of a taxpayer, his spouse and minor children or one or more of them;and
- (c) the amount of any contributions paid to a medical aid society in respect of the taxpayer or his spouse or any minor children.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), a credit to be determined in accordance with subsection (3) shall be deducted from the income tax with which a taxpayer is chargeable in respect of payments which the taxpayer made in the period of assessment by way of medical expenses.

(3) The amount of the credit deductible in terms of subsection (2) shall be calculated at the rate of one dollar for every two dollars paid by way of medical expenses.

[Subsection amended by Act 29 of 1998]

(4) No credit shall be deducted in terms of subsection (2) in respect of any payment such as is referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of “medical expenses” in subsection (1) if the taxpayer is not at any time during the period of assessment ordinarily resident in Zimbabwe.

(5) For the purposes of this section—

(a) a payment made from the deceased estate of a taxpayer by way of medical expenses which are incurred before the death of the deceased shall be treated as having been made immediately before the death of the deceased; and

(b) a taxpayer shall not be treated as having made a payment by way of medical expenses to the extent that the taxpayer, his spouse or dependant is entitled to a refund or payment from any source whatsoever in connection with the medical expenses to meet which the payment was made.

(6) The provisions of the Taxes Act relating to objections or appeals shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in respect of any decision made by the Commissioner in terms of this section.

13 Mentally or physically disabled persons

(1) Subject to this section, a credit of the specified amount shall be deducted from the income tax with which a taxpayer is chargeable, where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the taxpayer is mentally or physically disabled to a substantial degree, but is not blind.

(2) Subject to this section, a credit of the specified amount shall be deducted from the income tax with which a taxpayer, other than a married woman, is chargeable in respect of each child of the taxpayer who is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to be mentally or physically disabled to a substantial degree.

(3) Any portion of a credit deductible in terms of subsection (1) or (2) which is not applied in reduction of the income tax with which a married person is chargeable shall be allowed as a deduction from the income tax with which his or her spouse is chargeable.

(4) No credit shall be deductible in terms of subsection (1) or (2) if the taxpayer is not at any time in the period of assessment ordinarily resident in Zimbabwe.

(5) A person shall not be regarded for the purposes of subsection (1) or (2) as being mentally or physically disabled if his disablement is of a temporary or transitional nature.

(6) The provisions of the Taxes Act providing for objections or appeals shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in respect of any decision made by the Commissioner in terms of this section.

- (i) in respect of that part of the taxable income of the operator of a tourist facility in an approved tourist development zone which is attributable to his operation of that facility, at the specified percentage of each dollar of that income.
[Paragraph inserted by Act 27 of 2001 and substituted by Act 14 of 2002]

(3) Where a person, on or after the 1st April, 1991, commences manufacturing operations in a new project in a growth point area, the income tax with which the person is chargeable, in respect of so much of his taxable income as in the opinion of the Commissioner is derived from such operations in the year of assessment in which he commences such operations and in each of the four years of assessment next following that year of assessment, shall be at the specified percentage of each dollar of the taxable income derived from such operations.

(3a1) Where a person, on or after the 1st April, 1991, commences operations in a new project in a growth point area for the provision of any one or more of the following things in that growth point area—

- (a) roads;
- (b) bridges;
- (c) sanitation;
- (d) water reticulation;

the income tax with which the person is chargeable, in respect of so much of his taxable income as in the opinion of the Commissioner, is derived from such operations in the year of assessment in which he commences such operations and in each of the four years of assessment next following that year of assessment, shall be at the specified percentage of each dollar of the taxable income derived from such operations.
[Subsection inserted by Act 14 of 2002]

(3a) Where a company conducts manufacturing operations and, in any year of assessment, fifty per centum of its total manufacturing output is exported from Zimbabwe, the income tax with which the company is chargeable, in respect of so much of its taxable income as, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is derived from manufacturing operations conducted in Zimbabwe during that year of assessment, shall be at the specified percentage of each dollar of the taxable income derived from such manufacturing.
[Subsection substituted by Act 27 of 2001, and amended by Act 14 of 2002]

(3b) For the purposes of subsection (3a) percentages of a company's manufacturing output shall be calculated by quantity or volume rather than according to value.
[Subsection substituted by Act 27 of 2001 and amended by Act 14 of 2002]

(3c) Where, in any year of assessment, sixty per centum or more of the turnover of an operator of a tourist facility consists of receipts in foreign currency, the income tax with which the operator is chargeable, in respect of so much of his taxable income as, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is derived from the operation of that facility during that year of assessment, shall be at the specified percentage of each dollar of the taxable income derived from such operation.
[Subsection substituted by Act 27 of 2001 and amended by Act 14 of 2002]

(3d)

[Subsections repealed by Act 18 of 2000]

(3e).....

[Subsections repealed by Act 18 of 2000]

(3f)

[Subsections repealed by Act 18 of 2000]

(4) Subject to subsection (5) and to section 50 of the Taxes Act, if in the year of assessment beginning on the 1st April, 1988, or any subsequent year of assessment, the taxable income of a person, other than a company or a trust, includes—

- (a) any amount referred to in proviso (iv) to paragraph (b) of the definition of “gross income” in subsection (1) of section 8 of the Taxes Act; or
 - (b) any amount included by virtue of paragraph (c) of the definition of “gross income” in subsection (1) of section 8 of the Taxes Act; or
 - (c) any amount referred to in paragraph 5 of the Seventh Schedule to the Taxes Act;
- the income tax with which that person is chargeable in respect of that year of assessment shall be calculated—
- (i) in respect of so much of the taxable income as would remain had the amount specified in paragraph (a), (b) or (c), as the case may be, not been included (hereinafter called “the first amount”), at the appropriate rates referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (2); and
 - (ii) in respect of each dollar of so much of the taxable income as would remain were the first amount deducted, at the highest rate at which any part of the first amount is chargeable:

Provided that, if the first amount consists of taxable income from employment and does not exceed the amount referred to in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subsection (2), then so much of the person’s taxable income as exceeds that second-mentioned amount shall be chargeable at the rate applicable to the amounts referred to in subparagraph (ii) of that paragraph.

(5) If in the year of assessment beginning on the 1st April, 1988, or any subsequent year of assessment, the taxable income of a person includes any amount by way of dividends from a company incorporated outside Zimbabwe, that amount—

- (a) shall be charged to tax at the specified percentage; and
- (b) shall be deducted from the person’s taxable income prior to the application of subsections (2), (3), (4) and (6) to that income:

Provided that, where the taxable income, excluding the dividends, of a person other than a company or trust is less than—

- (i) one thousand eight hundred dollars, in respect of the years of assessment beginning on the 1st April, 1988, and the 1st April, 1989; or
- (ii) two thousand dollars, in respect of the year of assessment beginning on the 1st April, 1990;
- (iii) three thousand six hundred dollars, in respect of the year of assessment beginning on the 1st April, 1991;
- (iv) four thousand eight hundred dollars, in respect of the years of assessment beginning on the 1st April, 1992, and the 1st April, 1993;
- (v) six thousand dollars in respect of the year of assessment beginning on the 1st April, 1994;
- (vi) nine thousand dollars in respect of the years of assessment beginning on the 1st April, 1995, and the 1st April, 1996;
- (vii) nine thousand three hundred and sixty dollars, in respect of the years of assessment beginning on the 1st April, 1997, and the 1st January, 1998.
- (viii) twenty-four thousand dollars, in respect of the year of assessment beginning on the 1st January, 1999;
- (ix) thirty thousand dollars, in respect of the year of assessment beginning on the 1st January, 2000, or any subsequent year of assessment;

the amount to be charged to tax in terms of paragraph (a) shall be reduced by the difference between his taxable income, excluding the dividends, and the appropriate amount referred to in paragraphs (i) to (ix) of this proviso in respect of the year of assessment concerned.

[Subsection repealed by section 5 of Act 13 of 1996]

(7) In respect of the year of assessment beginning on the 1st April, 1992, as a consequence of the drought that has prevailed in Zimbabwe there shall be charged, in the case of a person other than a company or a trust, a sum equal to five per centum of the amount of income tax with which he is chargeable in terms of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) in respect of that year of assessment, after the deduction of any credits that are to be deducted under Part II of this Chapter, and such sum shall be payable in addition to the income tax with which such person is chargeable under this section.

(8) In respect of the years of assessment beginning on the 1st April, 1991, and the 1st April, 1992, as a consequence of the drought that has prevailed in Zimbabwe there shall be charged, in the case of a company or a trust, a sum equal to five per centum of the amount of income tax with which the company or trust is chargeable in terms of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) in respect of the year of assessment concerned, and such sum shall be payable in addition to the income tax with which the company or trust is chargeable under this section.

If, after that date, the duty is still unpaid, the Registrar of Deeds shall make a note on the title deeds to the property and in his register stating that transfer of the property is prohibited until the duty has been paid; and until the duty has been paid no transfer of the property shall be passed;
 - (ii) where the acquisition of immovable property by an ecclesiastical, charitable or educational institution was registered in the Deeds Registry prior to the 1st October, 1972, and that institution was exempted from the duty payable in terms of the Item then in force, proviso (i) shall apply in determining whether any duty shall become due and payable after the date of the registration of the acquisition of the immovable property.
- (c) An heir or legatee, or a tutor, curator or trustee acquiring for and in the name of an heir or legatee, in respect of property acquired by intestate or testamentary succession or as a result of a redistribution of the assets of a deceased estate in the process of liquidation.
 For the purposes of this paragraph—
- (i) “heir or legatee” does not include a person who is not—
 - A. a blood relation of either the deceased or his spouse; or
 - B. a legally adopted child of either the deceased or his spouse; or
 - C. the spouse of any relation or child referred to in subparagraph A or B;
 - (ii) the heir ab intestato of a person to whom customary law applies shall be determined in accordance with customary law;
- (d) A surviving spouse in respect of property acquired in any manner from the estate of the deceased spouse.
- (e) A joint owner of property in respect of the acquisition of a defined portion of the property allotted to him upon partition of the property, but not in respect of any consideration payable by him in order to equalize the partition or for any other reason.

- (f) A joint owner of property who acquires the sole ownership in the whole or a portion of the property, in respect of so much of the value of the property in which sole ownership is acquired as represents his share in the joint ownership of that property.
- (g) A registration to correct an error in the registration of the acquisition of any property, if the duty payable in respect of that acquisition has been duly paid.
- (h) A divorced spouse in respect of property awarded to such spouse by the divorce order.
- (i) A transfer of property in a deceased estate to an administrator where such property has, by will or by an order of court, been placed under the administration of such administrator.
- (j) A registration of property required as a result of the termination of the appointment of an administrator of a trust under a will or other written instrument or of a trustee of an insolvent estate.
- (k) A vesting of the property in an insolvent estate in the trustee of such estate or a restoration of such property by the trustee to the insolvent.
- (l) A vesting of the property on the liquidation of a company in the liquidator of such company or a restoration of such property by the liquidator to the company.
- (m) An acquisition of property in respect of which transfer duty is payable in terms of section 275 of the Mines and Minerals Act [Chapter 21:05].
- (n) An acquisition of property—
 - (i) by a company from the wholly owned subsidiary of the company; or
 - (ii) by the wholly owned subsidiary of a company from the company; or
 - (iii) by the wholly owned subsidiary of a company from another wholly owned subsidiary of the company;

if the Registrar of Deeds is satisfied that the company and its wholly owned subsidiary or the company and its wholly owned subsidiaries, as the case may be, are registered in terms of the Companies Act [Chapter 24:03] or the Insurance Act [Chapter 24:07], as the case may be:

Provided that if, within ten years after the date of acquisition of the property by the wholly owned subsidiary of a company and whilst the property is registered in the name of the wholly owned subsidiary of the company, the wholly owned subsidiary of the company ceases to be wholly owned by the company, duty shall become due and payable on the fair value of such property as determined by the Registrar of Deeds in terms of subsections (4) and (5) of section 23 of the principal Act, taking the date when the wholly owned subsidiary of the company ceased to be wholly owned by the company as being the date of acquisition of the property. If after that date the duty is still unpaid, the Registrar of Deeds shall make a note on the title deeds to the property and in his register stating that transfer of the property is prohibited until the duty has been paid; and until the duty has been paid no transfer of the property shall be passed.

In this exemption—

“company” includes—

- (a) a company as defined in the Companies Act [Chapter 24:03]; and
- (b) an insurer registered in terms of the Insurance Act [Chapter 24:07];

“wholly owned subsidiary” has the meaning assigned to it in the Companies Act [Chapter 24:03].

- (o) An acquisition of property by a local authority from the State by way of a transaction not involving purchase and sale where—
 - (i) the Secretary of the Ministry responsible for transferring the property certifies to the Commissioner that the property is to be used for public purposes; or
 - (ii) the property has been reserved by the State for the inhabitants of the area of the local authority.
- (p) An acquisition of property by a local authority in terms of the Regional, Town and Country Planning Act [Chapter 29:12], where the property—
 - (i) is acquired for public purposes; or
 - (ii) consists of a road, the ownership of which vests in the local authority in terms of the said Act.
- (q) An acquisition of property—
 - (i) by a pension or provident fund from a company all the shares of which are owned by that fund; or
 - (ii) by a company all the shares of which are owned by a pension or provident fund from that fund; or
 - (iii) by a company all the shares of which are owned by a pension or provident fund from another company all the shares of which are owned by that same fund:

Provided that if in the case of property acquired by such a company, within ten years after the date of acquisition of such property by that company and whilst such property is registered in the name of that company, the shares of that company cease to be wholly owned by the pension or provident fund concerned, duty shall become due and payable on the fair value of such property as determined by the Registrar of Deeds in terms of subsections (4) and (5) of section 23 of the principal Act, taking the date when all the shares of the company ceased to be wholly owned by the pension or provident fund as being the date of acquisition of the property. If, after that date, the duty is still unpaid, the Registrar of Deeds shall make a note on the title deeds to the property and in his register stating that transfer of the property is prohibited until the duty has been paid, and until the duty has been paid no transfer of the property shall be passed.

In this exemption—

“pension or provident fund” means a pension fund or provident fund which is registered or provisionally registered in terms of the Pension and Provident Funds Act [Chapter 24:09];

“company” has the meaning assigned to it in the Companies Act [Chapter 24:03].

- (r) An acquisition of property by a petroleum operator, approved by the Minister by notice in the Gazette, where the property is acquired for the purposes of petroleum operations.

In this exemption, “petroleum operations” and “petroleum operator” have the respective meanings given them by subsection (1) of section 2 of the Income Tax Act [Chapter 23:06].

- (s) An acquisition of property in respect of which an election has been made in terms of subparagraph (2) of paragraph 7 of the Eighth Schedule to the Income Tax Act [Chapter 23:06].

- (t) An acquisition of property in the circumstances described in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 15 of the Capital Gains Tax Act [Chapter 23:01].

CHAPTER III

LICENCES TARIFF

26 Interpretation in Chapter III

Any expression to which a meaning has been or may be construed as having been assigned in any enactment referred to in section twenty-seven shall, when used in this Chapter, have the same meaning.

27 Imposition of fees for certain licences

There shall be charged, levied and collected for the benefit of the Consolidated Revenue Fund the fees set out in the Schedule in respect of the licences therein mentioned, subject to any enactment for the time being in force relating thereto:

Provided that, where any such fees are collected by a revenue officer who is not an employee of the State, there may be paid to the employer of that revenue officer in respect of the collection of the fee such administration fee as the Minister responsible for finance may determine, and for that purpose the revenue officer concerned—

- (a) may, before paying the fees collected by him to the Consolidated Revenue Fund, deduct therefrom the amount of the administration fee as determined by the Minister responsible for finance; and
 (b) shall pay to the Consolidated Revenue Fund the balance of the fees so collected.

CHAPTER IV
VALUE ADDED TAX

28 Interpretation in Chapter IV

(1) In this Chapter—

“principal Act” means the Value Added Tax Act [Chapter 23:12];
[Definition substituted by Act 12 of 2002]

“value added tax” means the tax imposed in terms of Part III of the principal Act;
[Definition substituted by Act 12 of 2002]

(2) Any expression to which a meaning has been or may be construed as having been assigned in the principal Act shall, when used in this Chapter, have the same meaning.

29 Rates of value added tax

The rate of value added tax shall be as set out in the Schedule.
[Section substituted by Act 12 of 2002]

30 Amendment of rates imposed by section 29

(1) The Minister responsible for finance may, by statutory instrument, amend or replace the rate mentioned in section twenty-nine, and the rate as so amended or replaced shall, subject to subsection (2), accordingly be charged, levied and collected with effect from the date specified in such instrument, which shall not be earlier than the date the statutory instrument is published in the Gazette.

[Subsection amended by Act 27 of 2001]

(2) If any provision contained in a statutory instrument made in terms of subsection (1) is not confirmed by a Bill which—

(a) passes its second reading stage in Parliament on one of the twenty-eight days on which Parliament sits next after the coming into operation of the instrument; and that provision shall become void as from the date specified in the instrument as that on which the rate of tax shall be amended or replaced, and so much of the rate of tax as was amended or replaced, as the case may be, by that provision shall be deemed not to have been so amended or replaced.

(b) becomes law not later than six months after the date of such second reading;

31 Adjustments of tax

(1) If Parliament does not enact any increase of tax imposed in terms of subsection (1) of section thirty or enacts a lower increase of any tax so imposed, any registered operator or importer, as the case may be, who has paid such tax shall on application be entitled to a refund—

(a) in the case of an increase of tax not being enacted, of an amount equal to the difference between the tax paid by him and the existing tax; and

(b) in the case of a lower increase of tax being enacted, of an amount equal to the difference between the tax paid by him and the new increased tax.

(2) If Parliament—

(a) does not enact a reduction in a rate of tax made in terms of subsection (1) of section thirty; or

(b) enacts a less reduction in the rate of tax referred to in paragraph (a) than that made in terms of subsection (1) of section thirty; or

(c) does not enact a withdrawal of tax made in terms of subsection (1) of section thirty; or

(d) enacts the tax referred to in paragraph (c) at a reduced rate;

no payment by way of tax under-collected or tax not collected shall be required from any person in respect of the tax paid at the reduced rate or, as the case may be, in respect of tax payable during the period when, in terms of subsection (1) of section thirty, the rate of tax was reduced or, as the case may be, the tax was withdrawn.

Schedule to Chapter IV (Section 29)

[Schedule substituted by Act 16 of 2004]

CHAPTER V

BETTING AND GAMING TAX

[Chapter V repealed by Act 16 of 2004]

CHAPTER VI

ESTATE DUTY

34 Interpretation in Chapter VI

- (1) In this Chapter—
- (a) “principal Act” means the Estate Duty Act [Chapter 23:03];
- (b) every expression has the same meaning it would have when used in the principal Act.
- (2) The expression “this Act” when used in the principal Act shall be construed as including a reference to this Chapter.

35 Rate of estate duty

For the purposes of section 3 of the principal Act the rate of estate duty shall be as set out in the Schedule.

Schedule to Chapter VI (Section 35)

RATE OF ESTATE DUTY

1. In the case of the estate of a person who died before the 1st August, 1981, the rate of estate duty chargeable upon each dollar of the dutiable amount shall be arrived at by multiplying fifteen thousandths (0,015) of a cent by a number equal to the number of complete one hundred dollars contained in the dutiable amount, any part of one hundred dollars being regarded as a complete one hundred dollars:

Provided that—

- (i) the maximum rate upon each dollar of the dutiable amount shall be twelve and one-half cents;
- (ii) there shall be deducted from the amount of duty determined at the rate so calculated a rebate—
- (a) in the case of the estate of a person who died before the 1st October, 1972, of one thousand three hundred and fifty dollars;
- (b) in the case of the estate of a person who died on or after the 1st October, 1972, but before the 1st August, 1981, of five thousand four hundred dollars; and from the remaining amount there shall be deducted a sum equal to twenty per centum of such remaining amount.

2. In the case of the estate of a person who died on or after the 1st August, 1981, but before the 1st August, 1982, the rate of estate duty chargeable on each dollar of the dutiable amount shall be arrived at by multiplying two hundredths (0,02) of a cent by a number equal to the number of complete one hundred dollars contained in the dutiable amount, any part of one hundred dollars being regarded as a complete one hundred dollars:

Provided that—

- (i) the maximum rate of duty shall be twenty cents;
- (ii) there shall be deducted from the amount of the duty so determined a rebate of one thousand eight hundred dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by one hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds thirty thousand dollars.

3. In the case of the estate of a person who died on or after the 1st August, 1982 but before the 1st April, 1989, the rate of estate duty chargeable on each dollar of the dutiable amount shall be arrived at by multiplying two hundredths (0,02) of a cent by a number equal to the number of complete one hundred dollars contained in the dutiable amount, any part of one hundred dollars being regarded as a complete one hundred dollars:

Provided that—

- (i) the maximum rate of duty shall be twenty cents;

- (ii) there shall be deducted from the amount of duty so determined—
 - (a) in the case of the estate of a person who died leaving no spouse, a rebate of one thousand eight hundred dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by one hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds thirty thousand dollars;
 - (b) in the case of the estate of a person who died leaving a spouse, a rebate of seven thousand two hundred dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by four hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds sixty thousand dollars.

4. In the case of the estate of a person who died on or after the 1st April, 1989, but before the 1st April, 1993, the rate of estate duty chargeable on each dollar of the dutiable amount shall be arrived at by multiplying two hundredths (0,02) of a cent by a number equal to the number of complete one hundred dollars contained in the dutiable amount, any part of one hundred dollars being regarded as a complete one hundred dollars:

Provided that—

- (i) the maximum rate of duty shall be twenty cents;
- (ii) there shall be deducted from the amount of duty so determined—
 - (a) in the case of the estate of a person who died leaving no spouse, a rebate of five thousand dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by one hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds fifty thousand dollars;
 - (b) in the case of the estate of a person who died leaving a spouse, a rebate of twenty thousand dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by four hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds one hundred thousand dollars.

5. In the case of the estate of a person who died on or after the 1st April, 1993, but before the 1st April, 1994, the rate of estate duty chargeable on each dollar of the dutiable amount shall be arrived at by multiplying two-hundredths (0,02) of a cent by a number equal to the number of complete one hundred dollars contained in the dutiable amount, any part of one hundred dollars being regarded as a complete one hundred dollars:

Provided that—

- (i) the maximum rate of duty shall be twenty cents;
- (ii) there shall be deducted from the amount of duty so determined—
 - (a) in the case of the estate of a person who died leaving no spouse, a rebate of five thousand dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by one hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars;
 - (b) in the case of the estate of a person who died leaving a spouse, a rebate of twenty thousand dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by four hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

6. In the case of the estate of a person who died on or after the 1st April, 1994, but before the 1st January, 2000, the rate of estate duty chargeable on each dollar of the dutiable amount shall be arrived at by multiplying two-hundredths (0,02) of a cent by a number equal to the number of complete one hundred dollars contained in the dutiable amount, any part of one hundred dollars being regarded as a complete one hundred dollars:

Provided that—

- (i) the maximum rate of duty shall be twenty cents;
- (ii) there shall be deducted from the amount of duty so determined—
 - (a) in case of the estate of a person who died leaving no spouse, a rebate of twenty-five thousand dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by one hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds one hundred and twenty five thousand dollars.
 - (b) in case of the estate of a person who died leaving a spouse, a rebate of fifty thousand dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by four hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

6A. In the case of the estate of a person who died on or after the 1st January, 2000 but before the 1st January, 2003, the rate of estate duty chargeable on each dollar of the dutiable amount shall be arrived at by multiplying two-hundredths (0,02) of a cent by a number equal to the number of complete one hundred dollars contained in the dutiable amount, any part of one hundred dollars being regarded as a complete one hundred dollars:

Provided that—

- (i) the maximum rate of duty shall be twenty cents;
- (ii) there shall be deducted from the amount of duty so determined—
 - (a) in case of the estate of a person who died leaving no spouse, a rebate of fifty thousand dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by one hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.
 - (b) in case of the estate of a person who died leaving a spouse, a rebate of eighty thousand dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by four hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds four hundred thousand dollars.

6B. In the case of the estate of a person who died on or after the 1st January, 2003, but before the 1st January, 2004, the rate of estate duty chargeable on each dollar of the dutiable amount shall be arrived at by multiplying two-hundredths (0,02) of a cent by a number equal to the number of complete one hundred dollars contained in the dutiable amount, any part of one hundred dollars being regarded as a complete one hundred dollars:

Provided that—

- (i) the maximum rate of duty shall be twenty cents;
- (ii) there shall be deducted from the amount of duty so determined—
 - (a) in case of the estate of a person who died leaving a spouse or any minor child or both a spouse and any minor child, a rebate of five million dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by four hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds ten million dollars;
 - (b) in case of the estate of a person who died leaving no spouse or minor children, a rebate of fifty thousand dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by one hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

[Paragraph inserted by Act 15 of 2002 and amended by Act 10 of 2003]

6C. In the case of the estate of a person who died on or after the 1st January, 2003 but before the 1st January, 2005, the rate of estate duty chargeable on each dollar of the dutiable amount shall be arrived at by multiplying two-hundredths (0,02) of a cent by a number equal to the number of complete one hundred dollars contained in the dutiable amount, any part of one hundred dollars being regarded as a complete one hundred dollars:

Provided that—

- (i) the maximum rate of duty shall be twenty cents;
- (ii) there shall be deducted from the amount of duty so determined—
 - (a) in the case of the estate of a person who died leaving a spouse or any minor child or both a spouse and any minor child, a rebate of twenty million dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by four hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds forty million dollars;
 - (b) in the case of the estate of a person who died leaving no spouse or minor children, a rebate of fifty thousand dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by one hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds two hundred and fifty thousand dollars

[Paragraph inserted by Act 10 of 2003 and amended by Act 29 of 2004]

6D. In the case of the estate of a person died on or after the 1st January, 2005, or whose estate, regardless of when he or she died, is not finally and completely liquidated to the satisfaction of the Master on the 1st January, 2005, the rate of estate duty chargeable on each dollar of the dutiable amount shall be arrived at by multiplying two-hundredths (0,02) of a cent by a number equal to the number of complete one hundred dollars contained in the dutiable amount, any part of one hundred dollars being regarded as a complete one hundred dollars:

Provided that—

- (i) the maximum rate of duty shall be twenty cents;
- (ii) there shall be deducted from the amount of duty so determined a rebate of eighty million dollars, which rebate shall be reduced by four hundred dollars for every complete one thousand dollars by which the dutiable amount exceeds four hundred million dollars.

[Paragraph inserted by Act 29 of 2004]

6E. In the case of the estate of a person whose estate, regardless of when he or she died, is not finally and completely liquidated to the satisfaction of the Master on the 2nd December, 2005, the rate of estate duty chargeable on each dollar of the dutiable amount shall be arrived at by multiplying two-hundredths (0,02) of a cent by a number equal to the number of complete one hundred dollars contained in the dutiable amount, any part of one hundred dollars being regarded as a complete one hundred dollars:

Provided that—

- (i) the maximum rate of duty shall be five cents;
- (ii) only such portion of the value of the property included in the estate as exceeds one hundred million dollars shall be deemed to be the dutiable amount.

[Subsection inserted by Act 8 of 2005 and amended by Act 12 of 2006]

7. Where estate duty becomes payable upon the value of any movable or immovable property or on a value determined by reference to the value of any movable or immovable property and duty has, upon the death of any person (hereinafter referred to as the first-dying person), who died within five years prior to the death of the deceased, become payable upon the value of that movable or immovable property or upon a value determined by reference to the value of that movable or immovable property (or any movable or immovable property for which the Master is satisfied that that movable or immovable property has been substituted), the duty attributable to the value of that movable or immovable property or, as the case may be, the value determined by reference to the value of that movable or immovable property, but not exceeding (in either case) an amount equal to the value on which duty has become payable on the death of the first-dying person, shall be reduced by a percentage according to the following scale—

- (a) if the deceased dies within one year of the death of the first-dying person, one hundred per centum;
- (b) if the deceased dies more than one year but not more than two years after the death of the first-dying person, eighty per centum;
- (c) if the deceased dies more than two years but not more than three years after the death of the first-dying person, sixty per centum;
- (d) if the deceased dies more than three years but not more than four years after the death of the first-dying person, forty per centum;
- (e) if the deceased dies more than four years but not more than five years after the death of the first-dying person, twenty per centum;

subject to a maximum reduction equal to so much of the duty previously payable upon the death of the first-dying person as is attributable to the value of that movable or immovable property or, as the case may be, to an amount equal to the value determined by reference to the value of that movable or immovable property and as is proved to the satisfaction of the Master to have been borne by the deceased or by the estate of the first-dying person.

8. In the case of any amount which—

- (a) is due and recoverable under an insurance policy referred to in paragraph (f) of the proviso to paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of section 4 of the principal Act; and
- (b) is deemed to be property of the deceased; estate duty shall be charged at the same rate per dollar as is chargeable on the remainder of the deceased’s estate excluding such amount.

CHAPTER VII

MINING DUTY AND FEES

36 Interpretation in Chapter VII

- (1) In this Chapter—
 - (a) “principal Act” means the Mines and Minerals Act [Chapter 21:05];
