[Section amended by s.i 13 of 2008 and by s.i 153 of 2009]

7. Instruments for marking ballot papers

(1) An electoral officer shall not divulge to any person particulars of the instrument which is supplied to electoral officers for marking ballot papers with the official mark.

(2) The constituency elections officer shall place the instruments referred to in subsection (1) in sealed packets, and shall not open such sealed packets or permit them to be opened until immediately before the commencement of the poll.

8. Counting of votes

(1) At the time notified by the presiding officer for the counting of votes the presiding officer shall distribute the ballot papers in each ballot box referred to in section 55(1) of the Act to counting officers in lots suitable for scrutiny and counting.

(2) The counting officers shall scrutinize the ballot papers and set aside all ballot papers which, in their opinion, are such as are described in section 63(3) of the Act for the decision of the presiding officer in terms of that subsection.

(3) The counting officers shall set aside in a separate pile or bundle those ballot papers which do not bear the official mark of a presiding officer so that the presiding officer may determine, after the number of votes cast at the election has been ascertained, whether such ballot papers should not be rejected by virtue of section 63(5) of the Act.

(4) When the scrutiny of the ballot papers is completed, the presiding officer, with the assistance of the counting officers, shall then ascertain the result of the poll by counting the votes.

(5) The presiding officer shall adopt such means as to him or her seem best suited for dealing with the counting of the votes, and shall direct that every pile or bundle of ballot papers made up by any counting officer shall be handed to another counting officer or to himself or herself, but to no other person, to be checked in order to ensure that every such pile or bundle comprises no more and no less than the number of ballot papers stated to be comprised therein by the first counting officer.

(6) The presiding officer shall record the details of the counting on a polling station-return as shown on form V.11.

9. No person to notify results before polling-station return has been affixed outside the polling station

No person in attendance at the counting of the votes shall, before the result of the poll is recorded on the polling-station return and such polling-station return has been affixed outside the polling station by the presiding officer in accordance with section 64(2) of the Act, communicate to any person outside the place where the votes are being counted any information relating to the results of the count or to the number of votes given to any particular candidate at that polling station.

10. Collation of polling-station returns and aggregation of ordinary postal ballots by Ward Elections Officer

(1) There shall be established in every ward where an election is to take place, a ward elections officer whose role shall be to collate the polling-station returns in his or her ward and to count the postal ballots, if any, received in the ward.

(2) The ward elections officer shall give reasonable notice in writing to each candidate or his or her chief election agent or election agent of the time and place where the ward elections officer will verify and collate the polling-station returns.

(3) At the time and place notified by the ward elections officer, the ward elections officer shall— (a) verify the postal ballots by completing Part A of Form V.24; and

- (b) unseal the postal ballot box, and having counted the postal ballot papers contained therein, record the result of the counting by completing Part 13 of Form V.24; and
- (c) verify the receipt of the polling station returns by filling in the appropriate spaces provided at the top of Form V.23A; and
- (d) add together the number of votes received by each candidate as shown in each polling station return by filling in the appropriate spaces provided in Form V.23A;
- (e) add together the number of votes received by each candidate as recorded under paragraphs (b) and (d) and fill the appropriate spaces provided at the bottom of Form V.23A.

[Section substituted by s.i 94 of 2008]

10A. Collation of polling-station returns and aggregation of ordinary postal ballots by Constituency Elections Officer

At the time and place notified by the constituency elections officer under section 65(1) of the Act, the constituency elections officer shall—

- (a) verify the receipt of the polling station returns per ward by filling in the appropriate spaces provided at the top of Form V.23B; and
- (b) indicate the number of postal ballots received by each candidate for each ward as shown in Form V.23A by filling in Form V.23B the appropriate spaces in the columns where the votes for each candidate are recorded, for which purpose the space immediately following the space containing the name of the last polling station in the ward concerned shall be filled with name of the place where the postal ballots are collated at ward level followed by the abbreviation “P.V.”, in the manner indicated below:

Local Authority	Ward Number	Name of Polling Station	Votes received by Candidate 1	Etc.
XYZ	1	A	450	Etc.
XYZ	1	B	205	Etc.
XYZ	1	C	271	Etc.
XYZ	1	D(P.V.)	75	Etc.

(c) add together the number of votes received by each candidate as recorded under paragraphs (a) and (b) and fill the appropriate spaces provided at the bottom of form V.23B.

[Section inserted by s.i 94 of 2008]

11. Declaration of result of poll

(1) Subject to this section, the constituency elections officer shall declare the result of the poll in terms of section 66(1) of the Act by saying, both inside and outside the constituency centre, the following—

“I, being the constituency elections officer for the constituency, do hereby declare that I have, in accordance with the Electoral Act [Chapter 2:13], and the regulations made thereunder, ascertained the result of the poll for the said constituency, and that there have been given to—

(Name of candidate and party if any)

.....votes;
 votes;
 votes;

and that I therefore declare the said this day to be duly elected member of Parliament for the constituency.”.

(2) If at a poll referred to in subsection (1) two or more candidates have received an equal number of votes and such equality affects the result of the election, the constituency elections officer shall declare such result by saying, both inside and outside the place of verification and collation of polling-station returns, the following—

“I, being the constituency elections officer for the constituency, do hereby declare that I have, in accordance with the Electoral Act [Chapter 2:13], and the regulations made thereunder, ascertained the result of the poll for the said constituency, and that there have been given to— (Name of candidate and party if any)

..... votes;
 votes;

..... votes; and that, as and have received an equal number of votes and such equality affects the result of the election, the provisions of section 66(2) of the Electoral Act [Chapter 2:13], do apply, and the election shall be determined by the drawing of lots by the Chief Elections Officer in the presence of a judge of the Electoral Court.”:

Provided that, if such equality exists after the last count referred to in subsection (2), before making the statement in terms of this subsection, the constituency elections officer shall make a statement in terms of subsection (2) indicating the number of votes given to each candidate as determined at each counting of the votes.

12. Collection of ballot boxes and packets after close of poll

(1) The constituency elections officer shall fix and notify each presiding officer of the time and place where he or she will receive the ballot boxes and sealed packets referred to in section 69(1) of the Act.

(2) At the time fixed in terms of subsection (1), the constituency elections officer shall attend at the place notified in terms of subsection (1) for the reception of the ballot boxes and sealed packets referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The constituency elections officer shall, on the receipt of the ballot boxes and sealed packets referred to in subsection (1), examine seals on each such box and packet, and shall—

- (a) afford the candidates and the agents of the candidates an opportunity to examine such seals; and (b) make a record of any such seal which appears to him or her to have been tampered with.

13. Presiding officer to arrange for delivery of ballot boxes

If a presiding officer is unable for any reason to deliver personally to the constituency elections officer any ballot box and sealed packets referred to in section 12(1), he or she shall—

- (a) inform the constituency elections officer that he or she is unable to return the box and packets and the reasons therefor; and
- (b) arrange with the constituency elections officer for the delivery of such ballot box and packets by a person approved by the constituency elections officer.

14. Office hours and inspection and copies of documents

(1) The hours during which the office of an electoral officer shall be open to members of the public during any week-day which is not a Saturday or public holiday shall be from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.:

Provided that the office of an electoral officer shall be open to members of the public on such additional days and for such longer hours as the Commission may prescribe or direct.

(2) Any person wishing to inspect a document which is open to inspection in terms of the Act shall specify the document and the election to which the document refers.

(3) A person inspecting any document referred to in subsection (2) shall not make any copy or extract from such document.

(4) A copy or extract from any document referred to in subsection (2) shall be supplied by the electoral officer upon payment of such fee as may be fixed by the Commission to cover the cost of making such copy or extract.

15. Cost of voters' rolls

	US$

[Section substituted by s.i 153 of 2009]

16. Duties of constituency elections officers and polling officers when rolls printed

(1) The Commission shall arrange for every constituency elections officer and presiding officer to be furnished with a copy of the rolls for that election, and every constituency elections officer shall permit every candidate to examine, for such period as the constituency elections officer considers expedient in the circumstances, a copy of the rolls for that election

(2) At the election, the presiding officer may himself or herself, and if so required by a candidate or his or her chief election agent or election agent shall, before allowing a person to vote—

- (a) require the person to exhibit his or her proof of identity; and/or
- (b) put to him or her such questions as the presiding officer considers necessary to enable the presiding officer to be satisfied that the person is qualified to vote;

and if the person does not—

- (d) comply with paragraph (a); or
- (e) answer any question put to him or her under paragraph (b) to the satisfaction of the presiding officer; he or she shall not be handed a ballot-paper: Provided that—
 - (i) no voter shall be disqualified from voting solely on the grounds that his or her answer to any question put to him or her under paragraph (b) indicates that he or she has changed his or her name or address or both;
 - (ii) in the case of a change of name, the voter may be asked to produce proof of the same in the form of an affidavit, deed poll or notice of change of name in the Gazette.

(4) The presiding officer at the polling-station shall ascertain, by reference to the roll for the constituency, that the person claiming to vote is a person enrolled on that roll and, having ascertained that he or she is so enrolled and his or her number on the roll, the presiding officer shall—

- (a) mark the ballot-paper with the official mark and hand it to the person claiming the vote; and
- (b) draw a line through the number and surname of the voter on the roll as evidence that the voter has received a ballot-paper.

(5) Immediately after the count, the presiding officer shall make up into a separate packet and seal in accordance with the provisions of section 69(1)(b) of the Act the marked copies of the roll and shall forthwith deliver or cause it to be delivered to the constituency elections officer.

(6) In relation to postal ballot papers—

- (a) it shall not be necessary for the application to be accompanied by the voters registration certificate of the applicant;
- (b) the constituency elections officer shall draw a line through the number and surname of the voter in a copy of the roll, certified as correct by the Chief Elections Officer, as evidence that the voter has been issued with the postal ballot paper to which he or she is entitled but without showing the particular ballot paper issued to him or her.

(7) The constituency elections officer shall, if possible before the polling day, send to the presiding officer of every polling-station in the constituency a list of persons to whom postal ballot papers have been issued and the presiding officer shall write on the roll the letters “P.V.” opposite the name of each such voter.

(8) Immediately after the declaration of the result of the poll the constituency elections officer shall transmit all the marked copies of the rolls to the Chief Elections Officer who shall retain them for six months and, unless otherwise directed by an order of the Electoral Court, cause them to be destroyed.

17. Inspection of nomination paper after close of sitting of nomination court

For purposes of section 46(18)(b) of the Act, a registered voter may, after the close of the sitting of a nomination court but not later than 5 p.m. on the day following the close of the sitting of the nomination court inspect a nomination paper of a candidate for election as a member of Parliament.

18. Chief election agents and election agents : Presidential elections

POSTAL VOTING

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE VOTER

Read these instructions carefully before you begin to fill in the application for a postal vote.

1. VERY IMPORTANT—If there is an election in your ward/constituency, you must submit this application to the Chief Elections Officer.

2. A voter may apply for a postal ballot paper when he or she has good reason to believe that he or she will be absent from the ward/constituency or unable to attend at the polling station by reason of being—

- (a) on duty as a member of a disciplined force or as an electoral officer or monitor; or
- (b) absent from Zimbabwe in the service of the Government of Zimbabwe; or (c) a spouse of a person referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).

3.(1) A competent witness to an application for a postal ballot paper is the Registrar-General of Voters or any person who—

- (a) is a member of Parliament, a Provincial Governor, the principal diplomatic representative of Zimbabwe in any country or the deputy of such representative, or a member of the staff of such representative appointed by him or her, or the trade commissioner or any consular official for Zimbabwe in any country; or
- (b) inside Zimbabwe, holds the position of a hospital matron, Government mining engineer, Government inspector of mines, mine manager, constituency elections officer, deputy constituency elections officer, assistant constituency elections officer, or chairperson or secretary of a town council or rural district council; or
- (c) inside or outside Zimbabwe, is or holds the office of or an appointment as a chartered accountant, corporate member of an engineering institute, land surveyor, corporate member of an institute or association of architects, postmaster, legal practitioner, advocate, barrister, attorney, solicitor, magistrate, bank manager, commissioned officer in the Defence Forces, justice of the peace, commissioner of oaths, mayor, medical practitioner, town clerk, assistant town clerk, veterinary surgeon or commissioned police officer.

(2) A competent witness must not witness the signature of any person who makes application for a postal ballotpaper unless he or she—

- (a) has satisfied himself or herself as to the identity of the applicant; and
- (b) has seen the applicant sign the application in his or her own handwriting; and
- (c) knows that the statements contained in the application are true or has satisfied himself or herself, by inquiring from the applicant or otherwise, that such statements are true.

(Notes.—Notwithstanding any of the provisions of paragraph 3 of these instructions, neither a candidate nor a candidate’s agent in any election shall be a competent witness in respect of voting by post at that election.)
