“float money” means money kept by a money transfer agency—

- (a) in the form of Zimbabwean currency to meet its Zimbabwe dollar commitments to its customers; or
- (b) in the form of foreign currency to meet its foreign currency commitments to its customers;”;

[Definition substituted by s.i. 81A of 2004]

“free funds” means foreign currency acquired outside Zimbabwe by a resident of Zimbabwe otherwise than by any trade, business or other gainful occupation or activity carried on by him or her in Zimbabwe, or otherwise lawfully held outside Zimbabwe by a resident of Zimbabwe;

“money transfer agency” means a person that provides a money transfer service;

“money transfer service” means the business of transferring foreign currency between persons resident in Zimbabwe and persons resident in any other country or territory, and includes the buying of foreign currency in connection with such a service;

[Definition amended by s.i. 81A of 2004]

“principal regulations” means the Exchange Control Regulations, 1996, published in Statutory Instrument 109 of 1996;

“ruling auction rate” has the meaning given to that term by subsection (1) of section 2 of the Exchange Control (Currency Exchange) Order, 2004, published in Statutory Instrument 9 of 2004.

(2) Any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the principal regulations and the Exchange Control Order shall have the same meaning when used in this order.

3. Persons providing money transfer services to be registered

(1) Subject to section 16, no person may provide a money transfer service unless such person is registered as a money transfer agency in terms of this order.

(2) No person shall be registered as a money transfer agency in terms of this order unless such person—

- (a) is registered or incorporated as a company in terms of the Companies Act [Chapter 24:03]; or
- (b) is a division, department, unit or subsidiary company of a banking institution or a building society, the accounts of which are audited separately from the accounts of the parent banking institution or building society.

4. Documentation in support of registration as a money transfer agency

A person wishing to be registered as a money transfer agency shall apply to the Exchange Control Division of the Reserve Bank in the form set out in the First Schedule for such registration, and shall submit with the application a fee of five hundred thousand dollars and the following documentation in support of the application—

(a) in the case of a company—

- (i) a true copy, certified by the auditors of the company, of its memorandum and articles of association; and
- (ii) a true copy, certified by the auditors, of the certificate of incorporation or registration of the company, issued in terms of the Companies Act [Chapter 24:03]; and
- (iii) a statement, certified by the auditors of the company showing the authorised and paid-up share capital of the company; and

(b) in the case of a division, department or unit of a banking institution or building society, proof of registration of the parent banking institution or building society as a banking institution or building society; and

(c) a statement, certified the auditors of the company or and the auditors of the parent banking institution or building society (as the case may be) showing—

- (i) the assets that will comprise the minimum capital required in terms of paragraph (a) of section 8; and
- (ii) bank deposits comprising the float money referred to in paragraph (b) of section 8; and
- (iii) compliance with the minimum financial security requirements specified in paragraph (c) of section 8; and

(d) a statement of monthly cashflow projections indicating expected foreign currency receipts for a twelvemonth period, and target markets; and

(e) the name and address of every person who will become an officer of the proposed money transfer agency, together with details of their qualifications in the field of exchange control law and procedure, and the offices and branches where they will be stationed; and

(f) the name of each country or territory in or from which the applicant provides a money transfer service with Zimbabwe together with proof—

- (i) in the form of an agreement or provisional agreement between the applicant and the money transfer agency concerned that the applicant is affiliated or associated with a money transfer agency lawfully operating in the country or territory concerned; or
- (ii) that the applicant is itself registered or otherwise lawfully operating in the country or territory concerned; and

(g) an application for exchange control authority to maintain float money consisting of foreign currency of a specified amount.

- (i) affiliate or associate with a money transfer agency lawfully operating in the country or territory concerned; or
- (ii) secure registration or other authorisation to enable it to operate in such country or territory.

[Section amended by section 3 of s.i.81A of 2004]

5. Registration of money transfer agencies

- (1) The Reserve Bank shall consider every application submitted to it in terms of section 4 and, if it is satisfied—
 - (a) as to the matters specified in paragraphs (a) to (g) of section 4; and
 - (b) that the applicant has sufficient financial resources to conduct a money transfer service; and
 - (c) that the applicant has a fixed place of business which, in regard to location, size and security, is suitable for conducting a money transfer service; and
 - (d) the applicant will take adequate steps to safeguard and account for any foreign currency and Zimbabwean currency it may receive and deal with in the course of its business as a money transfer agency, and in particular that it will comply with the requirements of section 9; and
 - (e) the documents or information submitted with the application do not disclose that undesirable methods of conducting business will be adopted by the applicant; it shall register the applicant as a money transfer agency, subject to such terms and conditions as the Reserve Bank may specify in writing to the applicant.
- (2) If the Reserve Bank refuses to register the applicant as a money transfer agency it shall furnish the reasons for its refusal to the applicant and refund half of the application fee to it—
 - (a) immediately, if the applicant does not intend to appeal against the decision of the Reserve Bank; or
 - (b) upon the determination of any appeal lodged by the applicant against the decision of the Reserve Bank, if it loses the appeal:

Provided that if the applicant gives any information in connection with the application which is, to the applicant's knowledge, false in any material particular, or which the applicant does not have reasonable grounds for believing to be true, no part of the application fee shall be refunded
- (3) On registering any person as a money transfer agency the Reserve Bank shall—
 - (a) enter the name of the agency in a register kept by it for the purpose, together with any terms and conditions subject to which the agency is registered; and (b) issue the agency with a certificate of registration.
- (4) A money transfer agency may, subject to this order and the terms and conditions of its registration, conduct a money transfer service.

6. Amendment and cancellation of registration of money transfer agencies

- (1) The Reserve Bank may at any time amend the terms and conditions subject to which a money transfer agency is registered:

Provided that, before effecting any such amendment otherwise than at the request of the money transfer agency concerned, the Reserve Bank shall afford the money transfer agency an adequate opportunity to make representations in the matter.
- (2) If the Reserve Bank is satisfied that—
 - (a) the registration of any money transfer agency was secured through fraud or the misrepresentation of a material fact; or
 - (b) a money transfer agency has failed to comply with—
 - (i) any provision of this order or any direction or order made or issued thereunder with which it was its duty to comply; or
 - (ii) any term or condition subject to which it was registered; or
 - (c) a money transfer agency no longer possesses sufficient financial resources to conduct business as a money transfer agency; or
 - (d) a money transfer agency has failed to safeguard or account for any foreign currency or Zimbabwean currency it has received or dealt with in the course of its business as a money transfer agency;

it may cancel its registration as a money transfer agency or may alter or amend any term or condition of its registration:

Provided that before doing so the Reserve Bank shall afford the money transfer agency concerned an adequate opportunity to make representations in the matter.

7. Renewal of registration of money transfer agencies and opening of new branches

- (1) The annual fee payable to the Reserve Bank by a money transfer agency for the renewal of its registration shall be five hundred thousand dollars.
- (2) The annual fee referred to in subsection (1) shall be paid not later than the 31st March of the year following that in respect of which the fee is payable.
- (3) A registered money transfer agency that wishes to open a new branch of its operations anywhere in Zimbabwe may apply in writing to the Reserve Bank for permission to open such branch, and shall submit with its application—
 - (a) a fee of one hundred thousand dollars; and
 - (b) particulars of the location, size and security of the proposed branch of the money transfer agency; and (c) such information as the Reserve Bank may require.

(4) The Reserve Bank shall consider an application submitted to it in terms of subsection (3), and if it is satisfied as to any matter it considers relevant in connection with the application, and in particular that the proposed branch of the money transfer agency will comply with the requirements of subsections (2) and (3) of section 12, it grant permission for the branch to be opened.

8. Minimum capital and financial security requirements of money transfer agencies

No person shall be registered as a money transfer agency in terms of section 5 unless it satisfies the Reserve Bank that it has, and will maintain at any point in time—

- (a) a minimum capital of one hundred million dollars in the form of cash, equity, movable or immovable assets or any combination of the foregoing; and
- (b) float money of not less than one hundred million dollars in Zimbabwean currency deposited with an authorised dealer;
- (c) security cover to meet its commitments to its customers in the form of—
 - (i) a security deposit with the Reserve Bank of not less than twenty-five thousand United States dollars; or
 - (ii) a policy of professional indemnity issued by an insurer registered in terms of the Insurance Act [Chapter 24:07] for a sum not less than the Zimbabwe dollar value of twenty-five thousand United States dollars.

[Section substituted by s.i. 81A of 2004]

9. Operations of money transfer agencies

(1) Every money transfer agency shall conduct its operations in such a manner as will ensure its compliance with the requirements of subsections (2) to (9).

(2) A money transfer agency that receives foreign currency for the account of persons who opt to be paid for the foreign currency in Zimbabwean currency shall—

- (a) deposit the foreign currency in a single foreign currency account opened and operated by the money transfer agency with an authorised dealer:

Provided that a money transfer agency may open and operate separate foreign currency accounts with the same or different authorised dealers in respect of each of the foreign currencies in which it receives payment in terms of this order; and

- (b) transmit the foreign currency to the Reserve Bank—
 - (i) before the end of working hours on Friday each week; or
 - (ii) as soon as the aggregate of the foreign currency it receives amounts to twenty-five thousand United States dollars; whichever is the earlier date, whereupon the Reserve Bank shall exchange such foreign currency for Zimbabwean currency at the ruling auction rate.

(3) All foreign currency sent through a money transfer agency by citizens of Zimbabwe or persons who have a right of permanent residence in Zimbabwe for the benefit or to the account of recipient customers in Zimbabwe shall originate from free funds held by the persons who sent the foreign currency.

(4) The option whether to receive any foreign currency sent through a money transfer agency to a recipient customer in Zimbabwe—

- (a) as foreign currency or the equivalent thereof in Zimbabwean currency; or

(b) in the form of cash or travellers cheques; shall be exercised by the recipient customer alone.

(5) Whenever it is open for business, a money transfer agency shall display, in a manner visible to the public—

- (a) the current certificate of registration issued to it; and (b) a notice—

- (i) showing the rates at which it will exchange any foreign currency for Zimbabwean currency; and
- (ii) reminding recipient customers in Zimbabwe who opt to receive as foreign currency any foreign currency sent to them through the money transfer agency that, in accordance with section 4 of the principal regulations, they may not sell that foreign currency except through an authorised dealer.

(6) Where a recipient customer in Zimbabwe opts to receive the equivalent of any foreign currency sent through a money transfer agency in Zimbabwean currency, the money transfer agency shall on behalf of the Reserve Bank buy such foreign currency from the recipient customer at the ruling auction rate.

[Subsection amended by s.i. 81A of 2004]

(7) Where a recipient customer in Zimbabwe opts to receive as foreign currency any foreign currency sent through a money transfer agency, the money transfer agency shall—

- (a) in addition to displaying the notice referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (5), draw the attention of the recipient customer to the provisions section 4 of the principal regulations in such a manner as will secure the customer's personal acquaintance therewith; and

(b) issue to the recipient customer a Reserve Bank receipt for the foreign currency in the form shown in the Second Schedule.

(8) Except as authorised by an exchange control authority, a money transfer agency shall not, for its own account, buy foreign currency from recipient customers in Zimbabwe or from any other person or source whatsoever.

(9) No money transfer agency shall receive foreign currency originating from the export of goods or services or capital inflows.

10. Commissions, fees and charges

(1) A money transfer agency shall not demand from any recipient customer any commission, fee or charge whatsoever but the Reserve Bank shall pay the agency an agency's commission in Zimbabwean currency for every payout (in Zimbabwean currency) to a recipient customer at such rate as may be agreed between the Reserve Bank and money transfer agencies generally, or, in the absence of such agreement, at such rate as the Reserve Bank will fix by directive issued to money transfer agencies generally.

[Subsection amended by s.i. 81A of 2004]

(2) Where a money transfer agency that is affiliated or associated with another money transfer agency operating in a country or territory outside Zimbabwe receives for its own account any commission from such other money transfer agency in respect of business conducted between that country or territory and Zimbabwe, the first-mentioned money transfer agency shall deposit such commission in the foreign currency account referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 9.

11. Officers of money transfer agencies

(1) Every money transfer agency shall be managed by a manager or managing director who is a fit and proper person to manage the money transfer agency in terms of subsection (2).

(2) No person shall be a fit and proper person to be a manager or managing director of a money transfer agency if—

- (a) he or she is the manager or managing director of another money transfer agency which carries on business in Zimbabwe in competition with the first-mentioned agency; or
- (b) he or she does not have sufficient qualifications or experience in the field of exchange control law and procedure;

Provided that this disqualification does not apply to a person whom the Reserve Bank is satisfied will, before the pre-opening inspection referred to in subsection (1) of section 12, have satisfactorily completed a course of training on exchange control law and procedure conducted or approved by the Reserve Bank; or

- (c) under the law of any country—
 - (i) he or she has been adjudged or otherwise declared insolvent or bankrupt and has not been rehabilitated or discharged; or
 - (ii) he or she has made an assignment to, or arrangement or composition with, his creditors which has not been rescinded or set aside; or
 - (iii) he or she has been convicted of theft, fraud, forgery, uttering a forged document or perjury or any other offence, whether inside or outside Zimbabwe and by whatever name called, that is similar to any of those offences, and has not received a free pardon; or
 - (iv) he or she has been convicted of any offence and sentenced to a term of imprisonment exceeding six months, imposed inside or outside Zimbabwe otherwise than as an alternative to or in default of payment of a fine, and has not received a free pardon.

(3) No person shall be a fit and proper person to be a member of the professional or operational staff of a money transfer agency unless he or she has sufficient qualifications in the field of exchange control law and procedure:

Provided that this disqualification does not apply to a person whom the Reserve Bank is satisfied will, before the pre-opening inspection referred to in subsection (1) of section 12, have satisfactorily completed a course of training on exchange control law and procedure conducted or approved by the Reserve Bank.

(4) A person shall be deemed to have sufficient qualifications or experience in the field of exchange control law and procedure for the purpose of being an officer or member of the professional or operational staff of a money transfer agency if the Reserve Bank certifies that such person has satisfactorily completed any course of training on exchange control law and procedure conducted or approved by the Reserve Bank.

[Subsection amended by s.i. 81A of 2004]

(5) If any information comes to the notice of the Reserve Bank to the effect that an officer of a money transfer agency is not or has ceased to be a fit or proper person to hold the office concerned, the Reserve Bank shall—

- (a) furnish the money transfer agency and the officer concerned with full details of all the information in the possession of the Reserve Bank in that regard; and

(b) request the officer concerned in writing to make written representations to the Reserve Bank on the matter within thirty days of the request.

(6) The Reserve Bank may, after considering any representations received in terms of paragraph (b) of subsection (5), direct the money transfer agency in writing to commence proceedings for the removal of the officer concerned within such period as the Reserve Bank shall specify.

12. Premises and equipment of money transfer agencies

(1) Every new money transfer agency or new branch of a money transfer agency shall be subjected to a reopening inspection conducted by the Reserve Bank before it is opened to the public.

(2) Every money transfer agency shall be conducted in premises that comply with the following requirements in addition to any other requirements that may be specified in directions issued by the Reserve Bank— (a) the premises shall be reasonably secure, that is—

- (i) the premises shall not be mobile; and
- (ii) the premises shall be easily visible to the general public; and
- (iii) the premises shall be readily accessible by members of the public; and

(b) the tellers shall work behind a counter that affords reasonable protection to the tellers.

(3) For the purpose of the proper and efficient conduct of its operations, a money transfer agency shall comply with the minimum equipment and stationery requirements specified in the Second Schedule.

13. Accounts, returns and financial statements of money transfer agencies

(1) A money transfer agency shall—

- (a) keep proper accounts and other records relating thereto; and
- (b) before the end of working hours on Monday each week, submit to the Exchange Control Division of the Reserve Bank a return in the form prescribed in the Fourth Schedule; and

[Paragraph substituted by s.i. 81A of 2004]

(c) at the end of each financial year, prepare financial statements reflecting, in accordance with sound accounting practices, the agency's operations and financial condition.

(2) The accounts of a money transfer agency shall be audited by an auditor who is registered as a public auditor in terms of the Public Accountants and Auditors Act [Chapter 27:12] and who is not an employee, manager or director of the money transfer agency.

(3) Every money transfer agency shall furnish to the Reserve Bank copies of the audited annual financial statements prepared in terms of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) by the 31st March after the end of the financial year to which the statements relate.

[Subsection substituted by s.i. 81A of 2004]

14. Compliance directions and penalties

Additionally or alternatively to any penalty provided under the Act, the Reserve Bank may direct a money transfer agency to cease providing any money transfer service if the money transfer agency— (a) contravenes any provision of this order or any directive issued in terms of section 16; or

(b) fails to comply with the principal regulations or the Exchange Control Order or any exchange control directive issued in terms of the principal regulations.

15. Appeals

Any person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Reserve Bank refusing to register it as a money transfer agency or cancelling the registration of a money transfer agency or amending any term or condition of its registration, may appeal to the review authority referred to in section 43 of the principal regulations within the time there prescribed, and section 18 of the Exchange Control Order shall apply to any such appeal.

16. Directives to money transfer agencies

The Reserve Bank may issue to money transfer agencies generally—

- (a) directives requiring them to publish, at their own expense, particulars of their registration in a newspaper, the Gazette or both;
- (b) directives requiring them to publish their financial accounts annually or at more frequent intervals; (c) directives not inconsistent with this order on any matter the Reserve Bank deems fit.

17 Existing money transfer agencies deemed to be registered (1)

[Subsection repealed by s.i. 81A of 2004]

(2) Every existing money transfer agency shall, no later than thirty days from the date of commencement of the Exchange Control (Money Transfer Agencies) (Amendment) Order, 2004 (No. 1), submit a completed application form in terms of section 4, together with the fee and all the documentation referred to in that section.

[Subsection substituted by s.i. 81A of 2004]

(3) If any existing money transfer agency—

(a) does not meet the requirements referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of section 8;

[Paragraph substituted by s.i. 81A of 2004]

(b) does not comply with any of the requirements of section 9 or 10; it shall comply with such requirements no later than thirty days from the date of commencement of the Exchange Control (Money Transfer Agencies) (Amendment) Order, 2004 (No. 1);

[Paragraph amended by s.i. 81A of 2004]

(4) Every existing money transfer agency shall, when requested to do so by the Reserve Bank, furnish it with the names and addresses of every person who is an officer of the money transfer agency, together with details of their qualifications in the field of exchange control law and procedure, and the offices and branches where they will be stationed.

(5) Every officer of an existing money transfer agency shall within thirty days from the date of commencement of the Exchange Control (Money Transfer Agencies) (Amendment) Order, 2004 (No. 1) undergo the training referred to in subsection (4) of section 11.

[Paragraph amended by s.i. 81A of 2004]

(6) Additionally or alternatively to any penalty provided under the Act, the Reserve Bank may direct an existing money transfer agency to cease providing any money transfer service if the agency fails to comply with subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5).

(7) Every existing money transfer agency shall renew its registration in terms of section 7.
